Objective: Identify individuals who led resistance to political oppression by comparing the lives of Mohandas Gandhi and Nelson Mandela.

Directions:
Create the Double Bubble Map using the paper provided.
1. Use the Jarrett book (pages 316-323), and the internet.
2. List their contributions to their societies in India and South Africa inside the bubbles on their corresponding sides.
3. In the center/overlapping section you must include at least 5 things they have in common & include pictures. You will list what they have in common just above the bubble then draw the picture inside the bubble.
4. Processing Activity – Draw a frame around your double-bubble and respond to the following question

   How have the achievements and accomplishments, of Mohandas Gandhi and Nelson Mandela affected the world today?

60 minutes