World History - The Industrial Revolution

Use the brown Jarrett books pages 238-250 to answer the questions below

1. Define economics.

2. What are the three basic economic questions and how are they answered?

3. Describe a Free Enterprise System and what do people have the right to possess in this type of economy?

4. What is profit?

5. Why might several producers of the same product be beneficial for consumers?

6. Why might it be necessary for the government to supply some goods and services?

7. Explain the Law of Supply and Demand.

8. Who was Adam Smith, what is the title of his book and what are the main principles within the pages explain both? (hint: there are 2 of them)

9. Where did the Industrial Revolution start and which country was more successful industrializing?

10. What fundamental changes did the Industrial Revolution bring about?

11. Why did the Industrial Revolution begin in Great Britain?

12. Which inventions helped to revolutionize industrialization and move it along at a faster pace?
13. Where did craftsmen work prior to the Industrial Revolution and why were factories considered better?

14. Describe the working conditions during this period.

15. What happened to the urban centers (cities) during the Industrial Revolution?

16. What changes occurred in transportation and European Society? In your opinion were these positive or negative changes? Why or why not?

17. How was family life in the Industrial Revolution different from family life today, or is it? Do we see the conditions of the Industrial Revolution anywhere today or have these abuses been eradicated (done away with)?

18. What contributions did Louis Pasteur make to society during this period in time?

19. List six (6) reforms that occurred in socially and politically as a result of the Industrial Revolution.

   a.

   b.

   c.

   d.

   e.

   f.

20. Define Proletariat.
21. Define Communism and Socialism. Who is credited for these terms and what was the title of their book?

22. What were the basic beliefs within the Communist Manifesto?

23. What impact did the Industrial Revolution have on Nationalism and whose power did it strengthen?

24. What was the second Industrial Revolution, who were the key players and what did they invent or discover?

25. How has the Industrial Revolution impacted the world today? Think about the inventions and where we are today as a global society.