Scientific Revolution Image Analysis Worksheet

Use this handout to analyze paintings, drawings, engravings, etc.

Level I. Observation

Study the image for 2 minutes. Form an overall impression of the image and then examine individual items. Next, divide the image into quadrants (sections) and study each section to see what new details become visible.

1. Use the chart below to list people, objects, and activities in the image

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>People</th>
<th>Objects</th>
<th>Activities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Level II. Inference

2. In what time period do you estimate this image was made? Why? ____________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3. Who is the intended audience for this image? ____________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
4. List three other things you might infer from this image. __________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Level III. Analysis

5. Based on your observations in Levels 1 & 2, what is the purpose of this image? ____________

________________________________________

________________________________________

6. What questions does this image raise in your mind? ________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

7. Where could you find answers to these questions? ________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________